You fellows here in town shivering and complaining about the cold, and going from a warm office to a steam-heated home, ought to be ashamed of yourselves. Suppose you had to live in some of the shanties of the city or of the county, with cracks in the walls and floors big enough to drive a yearling through.

One fellow, fixing to move in Beat Four, has burned his entire privy, except one side, the north side. When he makes a fire with that, look out, for he will be gone before dark.

You oldsters need not start going to the mailbox every day for that pension check yet. We will let you know when to expect them. If you do not get it before March 1st, write Paul about it, but wait until then.

Maybe, if I had not been high man in the postoffice race and had not retired, I might have been down there in Jackson working two days a week, and not working hard those two days getting $1000.00.

Examining the plans for the reconstruction of the county court house, we failed to find any place for the poor supervisors to meet, unless they meet in those air-conditioned toilets underground, and that would interfere with some of the amateur drinking, for the toilets have always been considered to be informal bars.

Please examine the date beside your name. If it indicates you subscription is out, please do the needful. We were forced to cut off about 15 this week.

Mighty sorry to hear of the death at his home in Sweetman Sunday of ex-Senator Joe Adams, a man who, though handicapped by blindness, was a most useful man to his community and to his state.

A big delegation from Cascilla is going to Jackson the last of the week to get those good jobs that were promised them last summer.

Taylor Hayward and Snip Crenshaw got back a bunch of the meat that the Lafons are alleged to have stolen at Graysport and sold in West Memphis, Ark. Not exactly bringing home the bacon, but close to it, bringing in the hams, shoulders and midlings.

Somebody explained why Charlie Cohea let his mustache grow back out by saying that Charlie looked too much like Bob West without his mustache. Their tale, not mine.

And so little Horn was the "dark horse" in the alderman's race. From now on, we will have to refer to him as D. H. (even if that does conflict with Durrow's initials) instead of L. T. Horn, which might be interpreted wrongly.

We have definitely decided to tell what the stork does, and not speculate on what he is going to do. Let Walter Winchell, a thousand miles away, look after the pre-stork business.

Mike may have no fear of chins here now, as a pipe busted Saturday and drowned all the chins in this den.

Oh me, two more weeks of this Mardi Gras business and I will have the old lady back.

dere mr. top, i gess ile have to wate until about march furst to git them penshun muney. i owe more thn 30$ already on it.

These cattlemen mean to do something about these cattle rustlers. Send 'em to Parchman and let them take a course in raising their own cattle.

Our enemies may call us bull-shooters, but our friends, like Kirk, call us bull finders, for we found two for Kirk last week, no bulling.

William Winter attended the inauguration and also sat in on the legislative meetings. We did not ask him what he thought of these deliberative bodies, for two reasons. First, he is an honest lad, and second, his father is a member.

Louie Friedman, it is reported, ate a pork chop Thursday noon.

Captain Shaw lost no troops during the recent war in South Mississippi, fortunately. Reports have it that several were shot, but aspirin and cold water cured the wounds.

Van Browning walking by looks like he'd like to have some of those long red ones he used to wear when a boy up in Lafayette County.

Circuit Court Convened In Spite of Weather

With Hon. Joe Guyton of Kosciusko on the bench in the place of Judge John Allen, sick at home with a cold, the winter session of circuit court got off to slow start Monday morning as the weather was extremely cold.

After the usual preliminaries of drawing the jurors and delivering a charge to the grand jury, the judge excused the petit jurors for the day, and proceeded to take up non-jury matters.

The heavy snow that began falling Monday night did nothing to speed up the session as Tuesday morning found the whole county covered with several inches of snow and the depth increasing hourly.

The inclement weather threw quite a damper on this usually gay scene for many of the usual attendants upon every session found the hearthstones at home more inviting than the hazardous trip to town.

The grand jury headed by ex-sheriff Bob West began working immediately after it was impaneled and sworn in. The new district attorney, Hon. J. P. Coleman of Ackerman, and the new county attorney, Hon. Marshall Perry of Grenada, immediately got into harness and served the grand jurors with advice and advanced information, according to law.

The new sheriff, Taylor Hayward and his force, as well as the new circuit clerk, Charlie Worsham and his deputy, Miss Aline Bridges, had their first "baptism of fire" one might say, and each acquitted himself or herself most creditably. Squire Monroe McKibben was present and performed many duties. Among those appointed by the sheriff to guard the doors and so forth were Bill Lott, Babe Costlow and W. B. Rook.

The full list of jurors is as follows: Grand Jury—A. G. Jones, Ray Martin, Will Marters, Ted Whitten, J. T. Spears, R. West, J. L. Nail, W. A. Hayward, W. W. Rounsaville, G. W. Organ, O. D. Smith, T. B. Perry, M. V. McCormick, Alec Yopp, J. T. Williams, Lee Rouse, Alton Martin, W. J. Clark, Leland Whitten and P. M. Gray.

Jury No. 2—E. C. Barnett, B. P. Irby, Clayton Melton, Lacy Thomas, J. F. Spruill, N. N. Wright, J. F. Thomason, L. L. Clark, Louis Williams, C. H. McMahen, C. O. Cohea and J. G. Henley.

The grand jury which adjourned on Wednesday afternoon examined 45 witnesses, none of whom came voluntarily, and returned 9 indictments. Their report, which will be published next week, bore down especially on its recommendations about cattle being stolen and touched on liquor law violations.

Cases of comparatively minor importance occupied the time of court during this term. At the time of going to press, it is predicted that court will last until Saturday.

NOMINEES FOR JUNIOR MARDI GRAS KING AND QUEEN

The nominees selected for king and queen of the Junior Mardi Gras Tea Dance to succeed the reigning King Bobby Alexander and Queen Emogene Geoslin are:

For Queen: Peggy Horn, Betty Sue Williams, Margaret Spain, and Ruth Talbert.

Candidates for King will come to the Tea attired in the Queen of Hearts and the boy candidates as King of Hearts.

For King: Dave Dogan, George Granberry, Ellett Lawrence, and Bobby Townes.

The dance this year will be a fancy dress masked party in the high school gymnasium Friday afternoon from 4 to 6. There will be a prize for the boy and girl wearing the most attractive costume.

Mrs. Leon Geoslin is arranging a 30-minute program for your added entertainment. An advance sale of tickets will start Friday, Jan. 19th. Each ten cent ticket entitles the holder to one vote for the king and queen of his or her choice. Boxes for these votes will be placed in Dyre-Kent and Fatherree Drug-Stores and Jordan's Volunteer Store. There will also be a box at the door of the high school gymnasium for votes the afternoon of the tea dance.

Don't forget, the dance is in the gymnasium this year and there will be plenty of room for everybody. Make your plans now to be with us to enjoy this festive occasion.

Weather Halts Work On County Court House

The cold weather halted, temporarily, the work on the county court house this week. The whole project, a joint one sponsored by the county and the WPA, contemplates the expenditure of $24,000.00 on certain new construction and much reconstruction. Seven thousand dollars from the county and seventeen thousand dollars from the government will be spent.

The major project is the building of new structure, about thirty feet square on the northwest corner of the present building. The ground floor of this new room will be used for a 20x30 fireproof storage vault for the chancery clerk's records and a ten-foot corridor which will be an extension of the present hallway. Beneath this space will be a heating plant and modern toilets. This structure will be floored with asphalt tile.

Interior changes will include laying of asphalt tile in the present hallway; replastering all of the interior walls and all manner of essential repairs. The present vault used by the chancery clerk will be sealed on the west end, and a new door leading into the sheriff's office will be made, and the reconstructed vault will in the future be used by the sheriff, whose storage space now is very limited. New toilets for women will be installed between the circuit clerk's office and the superintendent's office.

Got An Extra Mama Cat? Mr. Haxby Wants It

John Haxby wants a mother cat. In fact he stated he would take half a dozen mother cats.

Most people look upon mother cats as nuisances for they periodically bring offspring, litters of mewling kittens, into the world. John Haxby looks upon mother cats as real assets and not only wants them, but will guarantee that the mother cats under his roof will have a good home, with ready access to the great earthy outdoors as well as ready access to plenty of milk, sardines and other things that cats dearly love to eat.

John Haxby's store contains tons of stuff, such as peanuts, peas, corn, all things that rats love. John knows that nothing man has invented can surpass cats as rat killers. He has always kept a flock of cats, but death, thieves and alienated affection have reduced his colony to two cats.

John wants mother cats. He is paying his good money to advertise for them. This is no joke. Bring mother cats needing a good home to John Haxby's French Market in Grenada.

Speaking of Parchman, see where Rev. O'Bryant, Will Jennings's brother-in-law, has been named by Governor Johnson as Chaplain there. A good appointment, we here in Grenada agree.

Nothing much to fuss about since that Laurel lady editor dried up about our favorite First Lady.

Little Jeff Marters was in town one day last week. I need such a fellow as Jeff in my court to keep Conner and Sam Mims apart. I hate to put them in jail.

Have you paid your poll tax? Do you want to vote for Bilbo and Ford, or others?

Little Tol Thomas from Cruger, in the swamp, came over to Grenada last Saturday to pay his subscription—and, maybe to borrow some of this good hill money, who knows.

Cold Weather Prompts Local Tipplers to Petition Sheriff Hayward For Relaxation Of His Stringent Enforcement Of The Liquor Laws

The right to petition the authorities for redress of wrongs, guaranteed by both the state and federal constitution was exercised in Grenada this week when a bunch of thirty citizens, irked by the snow and sleet which made thirst more poignant and the prospects of strong drink more alluring, wrote out and circulated a petition to the authorities praying that the present, stringent regulations, recently promulgated by the sheriff that licker selling in this vicinity cease forthwith and pronto, be relaxed until the sun shines again and dispels the cold, bleak and dreary weather and until court, which brought into Grenada from the hinterlands a group of people which had, since the last session of circuit court, looked forward with keen anticipation and relish to the prospect of again

PROCLAMATION

Whereas the public as a whole lead by the highest executive of our country in the very worthy and most strenuous effort to combat and alleviate the sufferings of the dreaded monster, Infantile Paralysis, it behooves us individually to lend our support to this most worthy cause.

Now I, E. C. Neely, mayor of your town, do hereby set unto you my splendid people the task of making this string of dimes 2000 long between now and the last day of January 1940 and present to the first lady approaching me for the cause my initial contribution.

Sincerely,
E. C. NEELY, Mayor.

Everybody is sniffing and coughing. There are enough cold germs floating around to repopulate the world, were they human beings.

J. M. Williams is taking no chances, as he paid up two or three months before time.

Senator Winter is still incredulous and wants to know where the money is coming from. Have faith, Brother Winter, Paul said he would find the money.

Here They Are: You'll Have to Pick Your Aldermen From This List

Just One More Week, Then The Mardi Gras Ball

On February 2, just one week from this Friday, the eighth annual Mardi Gras Ball, sponsored by All Saints Episcopal Auxiliary, will be brilliantly staged in the spacious and modern gymnasium in Grenada High School.

This brilliant ball will attract a large crowd of those who love to dance to the music of a good orchestra, as well as those who wish to witness the pageant and ball. Hundreds of "bids" have been mailed out; posters have been set to surrounding towns and placed in drug stores and cafes.

The orchestra is under the capable management of Mack Rae. There are eleven musicians, and thirty-seven instruments. They will have an entertaining floor show. The orchestra, The Memphis Blues, plays for the Cotton Carnival in Memphis.

The past royalty will be presented in the beautiful pageant which also includes the thirty-eight beautiful girls who, as representatives of Grenada business firms, are contestants for the coveted title of Queen of Mardi Gras.

Come to the ball and enjoy one of the outstanding social affairs staged in Mississippi.

The Tea at four o'clock in the afternoon will begin promptly. This affair is a costume affair, and in another article in this issue may be found a complete summary of what is to be a very delightful affair. Mack Rae and his men will play at the Teatime. Admission, ten cents.

To the ball tickets are 50 cents to spectators; script $2.00.

Seven-Inch Snow Blankets Grenada This Week

The first snow of the season fell on last Thursday but this light snow was but a feeler-out for the seven inch plus snow which began falling late Monday afternoon. While there is no official report, unofficial reporters said that the lowest temperature during the spell was 8 above zero.

There is a lot we might say of the weather, which has covered the entire South in a snowy blanket, but there is nothing to do about it.

FIRST QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

The first quarterly conference of the Grenada Methodist church will be held in the Men's Bible Class Room, Sunday at 4 P. M. with Rev. C. T. Floyd presiding. All officers and members of the church are invited to attend.

FLOYD TO PREACH

Rev. C. T. Floyd, district superintendent, will fill the pulpit at the evening services at the Methodist church on Sunday.

Sister Theisman, one of our former borrowers, has become a subscriber, and no doubt, a leader of the future.

Up here in the Roach Den, we battled one hundred pounds with the ice and snow. Two water outlets, two busts.

Some of the Grenada citizens, during this time of frozen and busted pipes, etc., have been doing like the bears do.

As we are not getting anything for this article, like we do from mayor and marshal candidates, we are going to do like that fellow did with the short arise, hurry him quickly.

You must pick your board from the following men, a short sketch of each being included.

From East Ward, you must pick two from the following three:

JOHN MCEACHIN, member of the present board, cotton buyer, not scared to say what he thinks or to vote for what he thinks right; and

HARRY C. WILSON, substantial citizen, barber, active in American Legion affairs, public spirited, ever willing to spend his time in any worth while public enterprise, never a member of the board before; and

JIM HOHN, cotton buyer, veteran of World War, member of the city's board at this time, smallest in size of any other member, member of finance committee, not offering anything except promises of good service for any votes; and CLARENCE BURT, timber inspector for the J. C. Good looking, intelligent, Presbyterian by religion, needy in office seeking, no free cigars and good drinks to offer.

From West Ward, the voters must pick two from the following three:

JOHN BRADLEY, member of the present board, seeking four more years of punishment and cussing, general fire insurance business, takes active interest in city affairs and now serving as mayor pro tem; and

JIM MOSS, member of the board at present, general contractor, most active churchman on board, so honest he will bend backwards, and, with one exception, the ugliest man on the present board; and

HARRY BURKLEY, who for the 1st time seeks civic or any other kind of office, and may regret it if successful, fine manner of men as he is the head man at the plywood plant, and an active member of the Jaycees.

The entire electorate of the city will have the duty, privilege, pleasure and perhaps the difficult task of selecting two from the following to be Aldermen at Large:

CLAUDE PERRY, entering the arena of politics after the meridian of life, retired capitalist, farmer, Baptist, fairly fluent in French and English, and having the record of never missing a meeting of the board, the not a member for 20 years; and

LEM BOONE, big, handsome, blonde head knocker of Grenada State Company, always to be counted upon to do more than his share in civic and Legion undertakings, a fine bridge expert and an all around good fellow; and

WHYTE WHITAKER, editor of a country newspaper, member of this board, didn't have much sense to begin with and has not learned much until now, always running for something, honest as the times and circumstances will permit.

These then are the hopes of Grenada, and may the good Lord guide Grenada thru the next four years!

MRS. SAM SIMMONS JR. TO ASSIST WITH CENSUS

Mrs. Sam Simmons Jr., having been named to the post, began her duties as taker of the Business and Manufacturers Census of Grenada and Carroll Counties on January 2nd. This work is scheduled to require about four months. Mrs. Simmons took the examination called for same, and received No. 2 rating, but, as we understand it, was given the post because the No. 1 applicant did not have a car, which is necessary in this work.

Mrs. Simmons, nee Miss Mary Coleman, is directly under Mr. J. V. Truist of Ackerman, who has general charge of the Census in this congressional district.

DR. BURKE, NEBO KIN, DIED AT CROWDER THURSDAY

On last Thursday, January 18, 1940, Dr. Luther R. Burke, 68, brother of Mr. C. S. Burke of Mt. Nebo, died. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Liberty Church, 12 miles northeast of Water Valley. Dr. Burke lived at Crowder, Mississippi. His wife, the former Miss Mollie Patton of Paris, Miss., survives. Their two children preceded him to the grave.

Hamp Weir stated that he had quite a few mail at home awaiting the eating. However, he did not invite me to eat any.

This Is Really Important

If you want to vote, you must pay those poll taxes on or before February 1st—just one more week.

If you wish homestead exemption next year, you must make NEW application for this exemption.

If your homestead is in town, you must make TWO new applications: One at the office of the county tax assessor, and the other at the city hall.

These applications must be made by April 1st. Some taxpayers had the erroneous impression that the applications made last year were "good" this year. They are not. New applications must be made.

Very likely, unless changed by the present legislature, lands will be sold for non-payment of state and county taxes in April this year. These taxes SHOULD be paid by February 1st to avoid accumulation of interest, and MUST be paid within a very few short weeks before the property is sold.

It will not be long until city taxes are due, and therefore none can blame the taxpayers for saying "One damned thing after another".

He Has Something There

In addition to advocating all the good things that he advocated as a candidate, Governor Johnson now comes forward opposing any effort on the part of the major oil companies to throttle oil production in Mississippi.

It seems foolish to us that, with Mississippi having just about half a dozen flowing wells, for anyone to advocate throttling oil production in the state. Let's get some wells to throttle before we talk about throttling oil production.

Let the wild catters find the oil wherever it may be, and let us have development before we have any laws which are designed to curtail exploration.

The same people who quarrelled at Roosevelt for killing pigs, still carried in the sows womb, are now advocating curtailment of production before production has started.

Let the wild-catters, the men who actually find the oil, have a free hand for a while at least. It is grand and noble for the philanthropic major oil companies to want to keep the oil underground in Mississippi for the unborn generations, but the "born" generations are in need of cash money at this time, and at the same time the "unborn generations" will have something to replace oil if oil supplies become exhausted. Let's worry a little about THIS generation.

Governor Johnson is right about this matter.

A Good Plan

The State of Mississippi, the owner of millions of acres of land, has always been at a disadvantage, and a serious one, in the past, on account of lack of information about its land. The buyer, interested in a particular tract of land, always KNEW what he was about when he offered to purchase the land. For all practical purposes, the state had to take the buyer's estimate of the value. Under such a system, the desirable land would continue to be, as in the past it has been, gobbled up, while the state kept the worthless land. This condition is a natural one when it is considered that the men and money available to the Land Commissioner were hardly adequate to maintain the office, with no men and no money to make even a cursory inventory of the state's land.

Governor Johnson now advocates a plan for selling state land which overcomes the objections of former practices. He says that no tract of land shall be sold by the state unless and until a state employee shall first inspect and place a value on the tract, and at the expense of the buyer. If this plan is followed, a good deal of the hocus and hoodoo that have characterized land sales in the past will be eliminated, provided always that competent and honest men make the inspections and place honest values on the land.

If this plan should incidentally give jobs to a few more of Governor Johnson's friends, there should be no objections, for these men, if they do their duty, will be worthwhile and will cost the state treasury nothing. In fact, they should, by causing fair prices for state lands to be received, increase the state's revenue.

It is going to take a lot of money to finance the old age pension, free school books, free hospitals and the other good things, and the state cannot and should not be wasteful of any of its assets, including its lands.

Governor Johnson's plan for the sale of state land will help considerably in conserving state resources.

We Hope It Means Something

The press dispatches a short while ago heralded to the world the fact that Bilbo and Pat, long at outs, had met face to face in an elevator and had broken their long silence toward each other.

This is a happy sign, and we hope is a preliminary to a complete reconciliation between Mississippi's two able senators. It is true but true to say that a divided house is undesirable. It is likewise true that our two senators working in harmony can do better work than they can if they are antagonistic to and jealous of each other.

It is very apparent that Bilbo and Pat will have to be together in the Senate for a good while yet, that is until one of them retires, as John Sharp Williams did, voluntarily, and the sensible course is the course that they have started, toward a complete reestablishment of the entente cordiale.

Deadening The Fall, We Hope

When many people offer for one job, or office, it is inevitable that all but one will fail to obtain the job or office. There will be many losers, and but one winner.

The losers often think and sometimes say that their friends went back on them, and that, had their friends stuck, the result would have been different. This is not necessarily true at all. Just because a voter votes for one man of the many offering for the office does not mean that the voter hates all the others. It does not mean that at all. It simply means that the individual voter, in his own mind, has taken all phases, including friendship, into consideration and has made a compromise with many other elements and settled on one of many friends.

For example, there are five men running for the office of Mayor of Grenada. We seriously doubt whether all of them together have a hundred enemies. Just one of the five will be elected. Each of the four losers will lose, not through the efforts of his enemies, but through the fact that a majority of his friends thought that another friend would make a better mayor.

The writer is a typical voter. He does not "hate" an individual now running for office in Grenada. He has not a grudge against a single one of them. He has not "got it in" for a single individual candidate. He will make a choice, among his friends, for each office, if he votes at all. And that condition is typical of most voters. There are exceptions, of course, where there is personal enmity held by some individuals against other individuals. By and large, however, each voter chooses ONE among MANY friends to vote for. In his heart he oftentimes wishes he could reward all of them. The mere fact that he votes for ONE does not by any means mean that he hates, or even dislikes the others. The words, "I wish I could vote for all of them", are not idle words but true words in most cases.

These thoughts are being thrown out with the hope that the blow will be somewhat softened when it falls upon the inevitable losers in the coming city campaign. It is not, by any manner or means, a personal political plea, for, if the writer loses in his attempt to get that ten dollars a month, he can "take it". "Me and Mike" are used to it. If "Me and Mike" cannot stand it, who can?

Eating Our Own Fat

There is nothing that we can, will, or would do about it, but we often wonder how long our country can continue living on its own fat, or how long can it continue to be prosperous when its prosperity is primarily due to government spending in one form or another.

How long can the prosperity continue when entire communities, great and small, are wholly dependent upon government checks? How long can this continue when ALL communities depend primarily, whether they admit it or not, upon periodic contributions, in form of salaries, wages and gratuities, from the federal government.

A merchant, for example, may say that all this government spending is wrong. If the government would stop spending he would be among the first to feel it, for he, or some other merchant, takes a toll from every dime of government money that is spent, and were he to trace each dollar that passes through his cash register, he would find that most of those dollars originally came from the proceeds of some government check.

We, operating a country newspaper, might say that this government spending is all bosh and it should be abolished immediately. We would feel the cessation of spending the very first week, with losses of advertising revenue, absence of renewals, and loss of job printing. The only way a country newspaper would benefit would be from a flood of foreclosure notices to be published—in short, from a community calamity.

The doctor, the dentist, the banker, the baker, the auto mechanic, the farmer, the railroad employee, and everyone else, except the holder of cash, would feel immediate bad effect of the cessation of government spending. The latter, that is the holder of cash, would face a revolution that might render his cash valueless.

This government spending and this dependence of ALL people upon government spending have become so colossal that no man, however wise, can foretell the end, and no man, however wise, can suggest a feasible substitute. Yet, all of us know that it cannot last indefinitely. However unfortunate this condition and this prospect are, this condition and this prospect are real and not imaginary.

We have many times used, to illustrate the country's condition, the homely tale about the wildcat and the man. The man had the wildcat by the tail. He could not hold on forever, nor could he find an opportunity to turn loose. So it is with the nation's assumption of the responsibility of the 1929 depression. It can find no opportunity to relieve itself of the responsibility, nor is it possible to continue on forever. With the passage of time, the dilemma has become more pressing, as the man's dilemma became more and more pressing, as he held tenaciously to the tail of the wildcat.

Wise (?) as we are, there is nothing that we can, will, or would do about it, except to ride on with the hope that we will live to see the solution.

Oh me

They Say

"They" say that, for dryness, Grenada has been more like the Sahara Desert this week than like its old wet self.

"They" say that every saloonkeeper, as if having a premonition of impending catastrophe, has secreted or sold his stock of hard goods and confined his sales to salted peanuts and soda pop.

"They" say that word has come from the high sheriff that this licker business, as an open legitimate business, MUST stop.

"They" say that the only thing stronger than beer to be had in Grenada this week was some of this pot-made scotch dispensed by some unusually furtive bootlegger down along the Peavine, and even he was unusually circumspect and unusually discriminating in the selection of his customers.

"They" say that, from now on, we MAY have bootleggers, but that the day of the open saloon is over.

Advertising Is Business Insurance

When business gets slack, many merchants stop advertising, or slacken up on it, when they should do just the opposite.

In "good times" and in the usual buying seasons, nearly everybody has pretty good business anyway. During this period of "good times" some merchants, feeling prosperous, decide to share their prosperity with the newspapers and do a good deal of advertising.

If advertising is anything, or means anything, or is worth anything, it is merely a tow line that helps draw business to the advertiser.

Would a prudent man who had kept up his insurance premiums during a long period of health, drop these premiums when he began to fail in health, or would he seek to get more insurance?

Would the property owner keep plenty of fire insurance on his property paid up all during the rainy season, and drop the insurance when the dry season began?

Would the barge captain who had employed the tow boat continuously while on the easy trip down stream discharge the tow boat when the tough upstream trip began?

These questions answer themselves.

Cook's Bill

We frankly say in the beginning that we know very little about Senator Grady Cook's bill to refinance county and district road bonds by replacing them with state bonds.

Senator Cook, we understand, claims that his bill contains equitable methods of distributing the burdens and benefits of the contemplated changes.

From a layman's viewpoint, we would say that it is impossible to effect these changes without benefit to some counties and harm to other counties. If there is harm to some and benefit to others, the plan will not be equitable.

And, if the plan hurts nobody and helps nobody, it is worthless. If it helps one and hurts another, it is inequitable. If it takes burdens from one county or district, it automatically places that burden upon another county or district.

On its face, it would reward counties and districts that had been improvident and add burdens to counties and districts that had been provident.

Grenada County, for example, has so managed its financial affairs that it recently sold some county-wide bonds on a 2 1/4 percent basis. Why should Grenada County risk getting its financial affairs interwoven with either of many counties that we might mention, but will not mention?

We do say this about Senator Cook's bill: If anyone can put it over, Grady can, for he has devoted the past two years to its study and to preliminary greasing of the skids. He is to be congratulated upon his earnestness and efforts, whether his bill passes or not.

The Telephone Girls

"Number, please" and "thank you" from the telephone operators, these pleasant words always spoken when a member of the public is in contact with the telephone company, have done more to solidify the good feeling toward the telephone company from the public than all other things.

This politeness from the operators on all occasions, whether usual or unusual, and toward all persons, whether pleasant or irascible, has paid countless millions of dividends to the owners of the company.

This politeness and cheerfulness on the part of the company's poorest paid employees have done more than all other things combined to remove the former hostile feelings of the people toward all corporations, including the telephone corporation.

We candidly believe that the "Number please" and the "Thank you" of the telephone girls have increased greatly the whole amount of politeness and courtesy in the nation, for a normal person will respond politely to the politeness of the telephone girl and will naturally form a habit of being more polite to others.

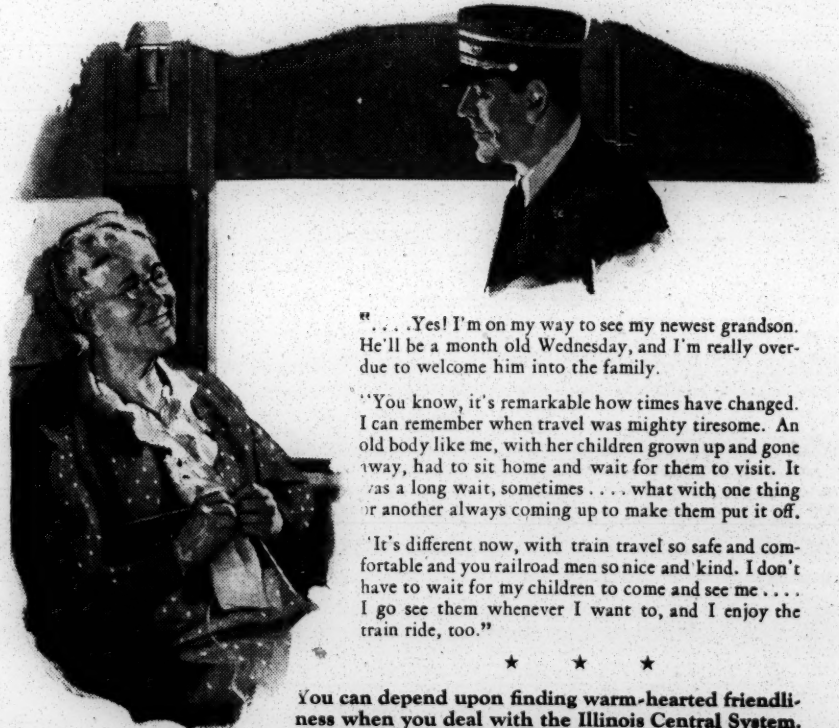

"Number please". "Thank you."

Let those three hundred operatives thrown out of work at Winona after the cotton mill burned are glad that state unemployment insurance exists.

All right, Bilbo, we got your letter about paying poll taxes and hurried right over and paid up.

"... Yes! I'm on my way to see my newest grandson. He'll be a month old Wednesday, and I'm really overdue to welcome him into the family."

"You know, it's remarkable how times have changed. I can remember when travel was mighty tiresome. An old body like me, with her children grown up and gone away, had to sit home and wait for them to visit. It was a long wait, sometimes... what with one thing or another always coming up to make them put it off."

"It's different now, with train travel so safe and comfortable and you railroad men so nice and kind. I don't have to wait for my children to come and see me.... I go see them whenever I want to, and I enjoy the train ride, too."

You can depend upon finding warm-hearted friendliness when you deal with the Illinois Central System. A genuine desire to be helpful extends through every department of our railroad and is your assurance of competent service, freight as well as passenger.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Spain of Grenada announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Wilsie Braxton (Peggie), to Mr. Arthur Lanere Grider of Memphis and Gulfport, the son of Mrs. Alvin Bowden of Gulfport. The wedding is to be solemnized the latter part of February.

Miss Spain is a graduate of Grenada High School and of the Stingley Laboratories in Meridian where she only recently completed a medical technician course.

ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

One of the most interesting social events of the winter occurred Wednesday evening at the club room of the Hotel Barwin when Mrs. H. B. Spain entertained, honoring her charming daughter, Peggie, bride elect of Mr. Arthur Lanere Grider of Memphis.

The time was from 7:30 until 10:00 o'clock and the honoree was presented to a small group of intimate friends.

For this occasion, Miss Spain chose a charming formal frock of heavenly blue which featured a braided bodice and shirred circular skirt, forming a chic bustle effect. She wore a corsage of pink carnations and narcissi. Mrs. Spain chose a handsome formal dress of black chiffon with shoulder corsage of pink gladioli.

As the guests arrived they were met in the lobby by Mrs. Spain, by the honoree and by Mrs. Bert Bays. As they entered the club room they were welcomed by Mrs. J. H. Neely, attired in a floor-length gown of black crepe with gold trim. Mrs. Bays was modestly attired in a powder blue dinner dress lined with red satin.

The setting for this charmingly planned announcement party was further enhanced by the use of beautiful pink gladioli arranged with ferns in wicker floor baskets. The color motif being pink and white with table service in blue Fostilia ware.

The refreshments which were served at 9 o'clock consisted of ice cream mold of the pink heart with white Cupid, pink heart-shaped sandwiches, salted nuts and individual bride's cakes in white with pink rose bud trim.

The announcement was written on miniature note paper and attached to each guest. The corsages were arrangements of pink carnations and fern.

For added entertainment, three tables were arranged for bridge games. Prizes were, for the honoree, luncheon; for high score award, a compact, and for second prize, a double deck of playing cards.

Attending this lovely affair were the following guests: Miss Spain, the honoree, Misses Martha Hoffa, Margaret Finney, Edith Penn, Louise McCaslin, Nina Mae Clark, Joyce Matthews and Lucy Webb Sharp and Mesdames Leon Geslin, Bert Bays, Robert Clanton, and Sam C. Mims III. Tea guests were Misses Sue Vandiver and Mary Elizabeth McNeill. The hostess and Mrs. Neely were assisted in the serving by Misses Jackie Lane and Margaret Spain. Invited, but unable to attend were Mesdames Etta Dudley and Roger Dollarhide.

There were forty musicians selected from sixty at MSCW to play at the reception at the mansion in Jackson on Tuesday evening when Governor and Mrs. Paul Johnson entertained. Three of the musicians were Grenada girls, namely, Misses Emma Karl Juchheim, violin, Nancy Nelson Grauberry, playing the French horn, and Virginia Echols, the viola. Grenada is proud of these talented girls.

MISS SHARP, HOSTESS

Miss Lucy Webb Sharp was hostess to the members of her bridge club on Friday afternoon at her home on Snider Street. The cozy living room was charmingly arranged for the young ladies who meet weekly for games.

In the late afternoon, the hostess, assisted by her gracious mother, served refreshments. Mrs. Juel Batson was the only non-member present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Biggers, Mrs. A. H. Taylor, and Mrs. Sarah Biggers, all of Corinth, attended the funeral rites of the late Mrs. Myrtle Weymeth Boyd last Thursday.

Miss Margaret Stockard visited in Memphis last week-end.

CARUSO-FOSTER

The wedding of Miss Frances Foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Foster of Grenada, to Mr. Robert Ernest Caruso, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Caruso of Boston, Mass., was solemnized January 6, 1940 at ten o'clock at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. E. R. Bell, pastor of the Baptist Church in Jackson, Miss.

The bride is a graduate of GHS and Draughton's Business College and has many friends in Grenada. The groom received his education in Atlanta and Kingston, Penn. He is employed by the McCrory Stores of Jackson.

They will reside in Savannah, Ga.

Mrs. Etta Dudley motored to Jackson to see her personal friends, Gov. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, the day of the inauguration.

MRS. HONEYCUTT ENTERTAINS

Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt was hostess last Friday to members of the Tuesday Bridge Club, of which she is a former member, also a few extra guests invited to play with the club.

Three tables were arranged in the handsome living room for the games.

Mesdames H. B. Spain, Etta Dudley, L. S. Murphy, Gene Marders and Mrs. Pope, of Jackson, were the non-members present. Mrs. Pope received high score prize. Mrs. F. P. White received second prize.

In the late afternoon a spaghetti plate with buttered rolls, potato chips, pickles, and a cup of delicious coffee was served.

VIGORO FERTILIZER

FRENCH MARKET

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Worthington attended to business affairs in Texas, Louisiana, and Arkansas last week. They motored.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jones and Mrs. Jones' mother, from Cleveland, spent Sunday with Mrs. Annie Jones. They came especially at this time to make preparations for "Miss" Annie's trip to Florida. She left Wednesday and expects to be away until spring.

GRENADA GIRLS HONORED

News from MSCW concerning honors gained by Grenada County girls is the announcement that Miss Frances Willis of Graysport has become a member of the Senior Theatre Guild. Her invitation to become a member was inspired by her splendid work in the Senior play staged the past fall. Miss Willis received her high school training under Prof. Rundle.

Mrs. O. F. Lawrence has returned home after several weeks spent with Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wiley in Blytheville, Ark.

Mrs. G. L. Johnson was a guest in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hammon in Jackson recently.

PARKER McNEASE

Mrs. L. P. Taylor of Derma announces the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Taylor McNease, to Mr. Rogers Parker of Graysport.

The wedding was solemnized Sunday morning, January 21, 1940, at the home of Rev. Glen E. Wiley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who said the marriage vows in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Davis Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayward Jr. and Mrs. Wiley.

After a wedding trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Parker will reside in Grenada.

The bride is a charming lady of both personality and intellect. She has held a responsible position with the P.S.A. in Grenada for some time, and has many friends here.

Mr. Parker is a member of one of the oldest and most influential families in Grenada County. His family has made this county their home for more than a century. He is owner of one of the largest plantations in the eastern part of the county.

To the happy couple we extend our sincere best wishes for happiness in their lives together.

Mrs. E. H. Sharpley of Hartsell, Ala. is recuperating at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Morrow. Mrs. Sharpley has only recently been discharged from the hospital following a spell of serious illness.

Miss Carolyn Sharpley, member of the faculty at Greenwood, visited her mother and sister the past week-end.

Mrs. Max McGonick was expected home on Wednesday after a three weeks visit with her parents in Kentucky.

Mrs. Lela Y. Pearson and son, Ike are to enjoy a week-end visit in Memphis this week and while there will see "Gone With the Wind."

TEA FOR MARDI GRAS

CONTESTANTS

On Thursday afternoon a box of beautiful girls were entertained at a charmingly planned tea by the pageant committee, whose chairman is Mrs. F. T. Gerard. Mesdames C. S. Liles and C. C. Cathey and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker received with Mrs. Gerard, graciously welcoming each guest.

The tea table which was draped with an imported lace cloth, held as a center decoration, a begonia plant in bloom. The olives and divinity fudge were placed on the table so that each guest could serve themselves. A refreshment plate with sandwiches and hot tea was served.

The committee preparing the tea was composed of Mesdames J. W. Sherwood, E. C. Bailey, Sax, Weir, and Arthur Kettle.

MRS. BASS HOSTESS

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. E. L. Bass was a charming hostess to members of her bridge club when she entertained at her home on Snider Street.

Two tables were arranged for the games.

Turning back to the by-gone days though the files of the paper, I noted that there was a 13-inch snow covering Grenada 5 years ago, to the week.

Snow is a fascinating thing to watch fall. A gruesome object to see melt.

In our warm homes in Grenada we enjoy the novelty of a big snow. If we could only realize what our country friends are going through, we would pray for it to cease.

Finland, Sweden, Norway and Denmark should combine in one great whole to see if they can make Comrade Stalin beg for mercy. If the others can stand as dead as the Finns there is no telling what type of rear guard action might develop.

I voted for one of the girls at the show Friday night, but the old devil with ten yoke of oxen couldn't pull the name out of me.

The legislature should enact in law everything Judge Johnson asked for in his inaugural address. Let everybody have a hell of a time for about six months, bankrupt the state, confound all unity in government, then return to Jackson in six months and straighten out the whole d— mess.

If you haven't heard about Parish Taylor's experience, ask someone. They say he really turned on the fan when the shotgun was discharged over his head.

Recommending two books to you: "Deep Summer" and its sequel, "Handsome Road". If you are planning to read them you will miss something—a beautifully painted picture of Louisiana in the by-gone days.

Congratulations to the GHS (girls) basketball team on winning out in the tournament. If we are not very mistaken, it was the first time for a Grenada team to accomplish such a feat. We also toss the coach, Miss Sarah McKibben, an orchid.

Happening upon a very interesting sight, though I admit it wasn't an unusual one, I saw ten PWA workers. Seven of them were so-called straw bosses, watching the other three government employees unload a truck of sand. Who is going to pay for such tomfoolery? The one-third Scotch that runs through my veins told me quickly that I didn't want to have anything to do with the pay-off.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this method of thanking the people of Grenada County for the nice and useful gifts and donations given us, after losing our home and everything we had but the clothes we had on, by fire. We appreciate each and every gift, for it has helped us so much in a financial way. But, we do not look at it in that way. It is not the value of the gift, but the spirit it is given with, and we take each gift as a token of love from you and may God some day in some way, have you to know just how much we appreciate your kindness.

Again thanking you all,

A FEW of the HIGHLIGHTS of THIS CITY ADMINISTRATION

Low Cost Malaria Control

First, a clean-up campaign through the co-operation of the Government aid in Malaria Control, cleaning the ditches all through town which were veritable catch-alls for every imaginable rubbish, scrap heaps, brick bats, boxes, paper, tin cans, old shoes, and any and every thing to retard drainage and form sag holes of filthy, breeding mosquitoes and sickness, fully 70 percent of which have been cleaned, terraced, sodded and bottomed with 6480 lineal feet of concrete inverts, causing easy natural flow of drainage, and aside from salvaging property and changing from the unsightly places to a thing of beauty and cleanliness, make for permanent improvement. And this was all done with NO BOND ISSUE, and NO RAISE IN TAXES.

Obtained Hosiery Mill

Next, an enterprise I think we all have reason to be proud of—the latest improvement Hosiery Mill in the United States, giving employment to a splendid citizenship, thereby stimulating business and growth of our City.

Low Cost City Paving

Next, 7,400.88 lineal feet of concrete paving has been laid at a savings in cost of fully half, or 50 percent, of former price.

Recreational Additions

Various other things such as the Lighted Sports Field, called "Proby Field", because of his active interest in soliciting the additional funds for its installation. Also a Tennis Court at the School Grounds. And a new Piano and an Oil Heating System at the Community House.

Street Department Improvements

Next, operating our Street Department at full efficiency, opening, widening, grading, and cinderling Govan Street west to the corporation line, also Pecan Street from 51 Highway to the I.C. R.R. tracks in the east. Assisting in the hauling, grading on the paving project, thereby getting a credit on our sponsors report of more than $700.00—a savings to you and me over all sufficient to pay for and install our Signal Lights over previous operation and which are meeting with the expressed approval of more than 90 percent of the people.

Retired $96,000.00 Worth of Bonds

Now, the outstanding Bonds of the City at the beginning of my administration amounted to	$195,000.00
Hosiery Mill and Improvements	$58,000.00
Street Pavings and Intersections	$82,000.00
	140,000.00
Bonds Retired to Date	$335,000.00
	96,000.00
	$239,000.00

Leaving outstanding over original only $44,000.00, which is $14,000.00 less than was issued for the Hosiery Mill and improvements, besides all other improvements, together with the Beautiful Green Grass-Covered Park with the Stationary Benches.

4 Mills of Tax Levy Saved

As you see, all of this at a savings of four (4) mills, as your vote was for six and one-half (6½) mills, we only levied 2½ mills, thereby saving the people in three years approximately $30,000.00, an administration all should be proud of.

I submit this for your information, and earnestly solicit your support and vote for Mayor with a promise of continued economical management, growth and further improvements. I have worked out many more outstanding accomplishments for our City.

Very respectfully and sincerely,

EDITORIAL

In our great library of thousands of volumes there are books for all moods and purposes. There are those for entertainment, for leisurely perusal, for study, for improvement of self.

A large part of our library is made of the classics in books and poems of the great authors, and they are rarely ever read more than once a year, and that is when an English teacher assigns them to students for book reports. The light entertaining novels that required much less of author's thoughts and mean much less are read and re-read. Novels might well be called the dessert of literature. No one that eats only dessert can be healthy; and so no one who reads only novels can have a healthy, well-rounded mind. Before you graduate, why not read A Tale of Two Cities, The Scarlet Letter, Othello, or King Lear? If you do not read such books now, you never will, for never again will you have as much leisure time as you have now. You will certainly regret it if you do not take advantage of the library now. Good literature can lift you up; it can inspire you to a better life. As the critic Hallett said of literature, "It brings us face to face with great ideals which increase our responsibility for the stewardship of life and tend to raise the level of our individual achievement. We have a heightened sense of the demands which life makes and a better comprehension of the far off divine event toward which we move. After we have read the inspired and inspiring poems of Swinburne, of Shakespeare, or Ben Johnson, Good literature quenches the thirst of the soul."

EDITORIAL

The merchants are taking inventory up-town; they are taking stock of their last year's business; noting any progress they have made; noting the accounts of the amount of money taken in and that which has been expended.

At examination time, we found out where we were weak; found out what we had failed to do and just how little or how much time we had spent studying.

The merchants are going to profit by their last year's failures; they are not going to deal in those goods that they have lost money on last year—and so we should not spend our time doing those things that have proved to be non-profitable, or even harmful.

The merchants have their livelihood at stake. We have our whole future success and happiness at stake. Someone once said: "Experience is the name we give our mistakes." We need never make the same mistake twice.

Shine up your shoes
Shake out your tux
Press out your wrinkles
Don't forget Lux.
Slick up your hair
Or give it a wave
Patch every tear
Or get a new shave
Save your dimes
Learn the new steps.
Keep in tune with the times—
Mardi Gras is here.

DOTS AND DASHES ON DUDS

Fashion! We are surrounded by fashions. Now that the preparations for Mardi Gras are in full swing.

It all started with the tea given for the girls on Thursday afternoon. All the girls looked lovely, but Friday night they were even more lovely. Some of the lovelies who modeled on the stage were:

Grace Smith in pink marquisette;
Louise Aven in black taffeta with red fur jacket;
Carolyn Whitaker in yellow taffeta;
Katherine Harrison in blue with 3 bouquets of pink gladjolli;
Billy Guy Thomas in blue taffeta;
Kathleen Carlisle in rose molre taffeta;

Ann Duncan in rose taffeta with embroidered butterflies;
Jackie Lane in blue taffeta;
Betty Rule in red velvet and gold clasps;

Charline Chapuis in white satin;
Elizabeth Brooks in aqua silk net and black Spanish lace;

Elizabeth Dogan in black and red taffeta;

Bernice Jones in white taffeta;
Mary Lou Cullen in white marquisette and lace;

Sue Rowell in pink marquisette;
Martha Jane Kettle in sea-green taffeta;

Frances Guldry in blue lace with Queen Anne collar;
May Bailey in white silk crepe;

Bye until next week, DIZZY.

ANNOUNCING A GREAT GIGANTIC CONTEST

Those of you who have had funny experiences now have the opportunity to tell about them. We're giving away a picture show ticket to everyone whose true story we publish. And popcorn money too! You must sign your name and it must be in by February 1st. Decisions of the judges are final. Judges are the editors.

CENSUS

As a result of a census of 77 representative students, we found these facts: Twenty percent are of Scotch-Irish descent; 19 percent Irish; 5 percent German; 1.2 percent Italian; 1.8 percent Dutch; 2 percent Indian; 20 percent Irish; 1.4 percent Scotch; 3 percent Spanish; 10 percent French; 1.2 percent Swedish; 20 percent were mixtures, such as French and Spanish, Indian and French, English and German. Next week we will make our census complete and have another one.

The rear seats of the algebra class have recently been occupied by some aspirants to the Honor Society who by their august postures, stonily immobile features and laconic speech are behaving very admirably.

J.S. DIRT

Cecil Hendricks: It's all right to fight, provided you do it intelligently. Leon Provine: Yes, but you can't always find someone smaller than you.

One of the most attractive exam presents of the semester was a box of stationery with his name on it, given to Coach Hathorne by his physics class.

Notice: Bulldog office has been moved from science room to mathematics room. Hours are daily from 11-12 instead of from 1-2.

Foo-losophy: Paying for exam paper is like paying for the electricity at your execution.

MORE EXAM ANSWERS

Epigram is half of a gram.
Bacteria is your back yard.
Liberty Bell is the bell that rings at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Legacy is where a consul lives.
Hyperbole is a big football game.
The supreme law of the land is God.
Electricity is an indefinable quantity made up of two less definable quantities known as positive and negative electrons.

P.S.: Aeneas' son is Aeneas Jr.

APT REMARKS BY APT PEOPLE

Charlie Calloway, while playing tennis with a cigar in his mouth, "this racket must have a hole in it." (And him going out for school tennis.)

"Will power is the ability to eat one salted peanut", Mary Ida Odum.

Bryant Baker just before exams, "I feel like a turkey just before Thanksgiving—crammed for a killing."

D. M. Taylor after finishing exams, "Good! No more studying for another four months."

Miss Hammond: "You children must not be distracted by the snow. It's pretty but just like the rain, except it's colored."

Jackie Lane: "If you don't make the most of Leap Year, you will have to wait four more years."

ANCIENT HISTORY

Remember that September when Katy Carlisle and David Childers were going to the football games to gether? When Sue Rowell and Robert Horn were such big friends?

When Dot Talbert and Frank Tinsley were happy in May? When Benton Keeton and Bernice Jones had such good times in Benton's old car?

When Bryant Baker used to go with Mary Alice Sanderson? When Coach gave Charlie Calloway a standing with his board of education? When Mickey and Camilla broke up and made up every week and they were so sweet, sweet? When Charline and Buddy Biddy were going together strong?

When Jack Hindson liked Nancy Nelson Granberry? When Betty Rule and Charles Shincy Spain went together back in dear old under high days? When Elizabeth Dogan went with Tommy Rose? When William Winter read Horatio Alger books by the crate?

When Kenneth Nail wanted to be a farmer? When Floyd Theisman used to sit by Louise Aven in the picture show? When Buddy York, as a freshman, came to school barefooted and in short pants? When all of us were in the liddy band?

When Frank Hill used to wear long curls? But we must stop for its a sign of age to look back—more some other time. Any reference to persons living or dead is purely coincidental.

MRS. CAROTHERS ENTERTAINS

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. A. M. Carothers was a most charming hostess to members of the Tuesday Bridge Club at her home on Market Street.

This lovely home with its many beautiful antiques, was artistically arranged for three tables of players who assembled in the living room. There were five non-member guest present: Miss Lida Coffman and Mesdames R. Semmes, Whyte Whitaker, Lena Elma Cheek and H. J. Ray. Members, in addition to the hostess, present were Mesdames H. C. Calhoun, H. W. Baker, E. L. Wilkins, John Martin, Gene Marders, E. L. Morrow and E. R. Pleasants.

Mrs. Carothers served delicious chicken salad on lettuce, olives, nuts, wafers and coffee with fruit cake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Austin of Vicksburg were called to the bedside of their sweet little granddaughter, June Evelyn, age 18 months, on Monday. The baby has pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Austin and June Evelyn reside in the apartment at Mrs. Horace Spain's.

Mrs. Pope has returned to her home in Jackson on Sunday last after a short visit with Mrs. H. B. Spain.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

The Fortnightly Club, one of the most interesting and active of the clubs in Grenada, met at the home of Mrs. C. S. Liles Wednesday afternoon, January 17th.

Potted plants and winter greenery were used at points of vantage to further enhance the attractive living room where the guests were seated.

The theme was "Modern Music" and the amusing responses to roll call inspired by "Jitterbug" slang caused much merriment.

Mrs. Roger Dollarhide interestingly presented a discourse on "Popular Orchestras". Mrs. E. R. Pleasants gave a very clear discussion of symphony orchestras.

Mrs. Liles served Coca Colas.

Mrs. John Keeton, a long time personal friend of Governor and Mrs. Johnson, was in the receiving line at the brilliant reception at the governor's mansion Tuesday last.

Mr. Jack Martin is in Oxford this week attending to business affairs.

Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Liles and little daughter, Dorothy, visited with relatives in the home of Mrs. Liles' mother, Mrs. Shields, at Morton the first of the week. The Rev. Mr. Liles planned to attend the annual meeting of the Diocese of Mississippi to be held at St. John's Church, Aberdeen, this week, but owing to the weather, Bishop Green cancelled the meeting. They will convene as soon as the weather permits.

The Social Calendar was omitted last week because at the time of going to press, it was incomplete. So many readers have expressed their pleasure concerning this new feature that we are now urging all secretaries or reporters to phone the society editor of meetings, stating time and meeting place.

FRENCH MARKET

If you folks in Jackson get tired of going to Sunday ball games, and tired of going to the gold coast, or to the saloons on Poythontas Road or in Warren County, and want to see a good picture show, drive up to Grenada any Sunday afternoon.

Mt. Nebo must be frozen under, for Max Yeager was not in town last week.

A quiet week, and a quiet year, so far, as nobody has been killed on 51 south. In fact, 51 south has become pretty quiet and law abiding recently.

SALUTATORY

In accepting call to be Nebo correspondent, we wish to make it clear that we do so (in our feeble way) to help our community, and interest readers in other places, by seeing names of those they know, we have no ambition to gratify, no friends to reward or enemies to punish by ignoring them, it's just news, also we wish to encourage GCW for since its first issue it has been a full blooded local county paper in every sense of the word; also beg to say the editor Whitaker has from the start shown us great kindness and courtesy and boosted us more than we are due. Should any scandals develop, we ignore them, but if you must know, we refer you to the grape vine system which has been in action since Father Adam's time.

Mrs. Ollie Clark has just returned from an extended visit to her parents in Corinth.

Coleman Cohea is quite sick with pneumonia.

Lavert S. Burke of Corpus Christi, Texas, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burke.

It may be great news to state that it commenced snowing here yesterday evening and still at it. Very few have any wood up and our ice cream season is on.

MRS. KOONCE

This evening at Mt. Nebo cemetery they bury Mrs. Koonce, who passed away yesterday at her home near Spears School house. She is mother of our good friend, Lucien Koonce. So far we have been unable, on account of the weather, to get details.

Sorghum French Market

The girls attending school at Blue Mountain College are having what they may term an "enforced vacation" due to a fire which occurred in the heating plant of the school, causing such damage that extensive repairs must be made before regular classes can be resumed. Those to return to Grenada are Misses Sue Vandiver, Vonette Wilson, Grace Estes and Evelyn Thomas.

Alnt they sweet.
